Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The 103(a) rejections set forth in the Final Rejection mailed October 22, 2001 have not been overcome by Applicants' arguments. Applicants argue that the Examiner has used "impermissible hindsight to combine [the references of record]" in order to support the 103(a) rejections. Applicants also argue details such as Ohnuki's cells cannot be characterized as being derived from the earliest metastasizing cells and the PC-3 cell line is aneuploid, which are not limitations set forth in the claims. Accordingly, these arguments are not commensurate in scope with the claims. Applicants argue that there is no motivation to combine the references of record. However, Ohnuki et al. provides motivation in the last paragraph of the abstract on page 524, as well as Chang on page 163, column 1, first full paragraph.
